JIAN WANG a/k/a JAMES WANG,

Plaintiff,

- v -

INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS MACHINES
CORP.,

Defendant.

11 Civ. 2992 (VB) (JCM)
ECF CASE

DECLARATION OF DANA G.
WEISBROD, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO ENFORCE THE PARTIES'
WRITTEN SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

The following declaration is made pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746:

1. I am a member of the law firm of Jackson Lewis P.C., attorneys for Defendant International Business Machines Corp. ("IBM" or "Defendant") in the above-referenced matter, and I submit this Declaration based on my personal knowledge in support of Defendant's Motion to Enforce the Parties' Written Settlement Agreement.

A. Plaintiff Invited Defendant to Mediate Plaintiff's Claims

2. Following the denial of Summary Judgment by the Court, the Court ordered the parties to submit a Joint Pretrial Order by March 17, 2014.

3. On February 25, 2014, Andrew Rozynski, Esq. ("Mr. Rozynski"), counsel for Plaintiff Jian Wang a/k/a James Wang ("Plaintiff" or "Mr. Wang"), called me to see if IBM was interested in mediation. I stated that IBM wanted to see where Plaintiff's demand was to see if mediation would be worthwhile. Mr. Rozynski provided me with a number and suggested that the parties mediate privately.

4. On February 28, 2014, I spoke with Mr. Rozynski by telephone and I advised him that IBM agreed to mediate this matter. Mr. Rozynski and I agreed to retain Ruth Raisfeld, Esq. as the mediator (the “Mediator”). Mr. Rozynski provided dates on which he and Plaintiff were available for mediation (the “Mediation”).

5. On March 3, 2014, the parties jointly requested an extension of time to submit the Joint Pretrial Order and an adjournment of the status conference. The stated reason for the extension was that the parties agreed to have a settlement conference and wished to explore settlement before proceeding to trial.

6. On March 4, 2014, the Court granted the parties’ request and set April 30, 2014 as the deadline for the submission of the Joint Pretrial Order.

7. The parties agreed to split the Mediation fees, with IBM paying 80% of the Mediation fees and Plaintiff paying 20% of the Mediation fees. However, the parties agreed that IBM would pay the full cost of the Mediation in the event the parties reached a settlement. This Agreement is confirmed in the attached Exhibit “A,” which is a true and correct copy of the mediation agreement executed by both parties (“Mediation Agreement”).

8. The Mediation Agreement specifically stated it was made in consideration of the parties’ desire to settle the action and it set forth, inter alia, the parties’ obligations with respect to the Mediation fees and compensation of the Mediator. See Exhibit “A.”

B. The Parties Reached a Settlement at the April 9, 2014 Mediation

9. On April 9, 2014, the parties convened at the New York City office of Jackson Lewis P.C. for the Mediation.

10. The Mediation began at 10:00 a.m. and concluded when the parties reached a settlement at approximately 5:45 p.m.

11. Plaintiff attended along with his counsel, Mr. Rozynski, who is fluent in American Sign Language, and a third-party sign language interpreter. Eric M. Baum, Esq., additional counsel for Plaintiff, attended the Mediation for the first part of the day. In addition, my colleague Kevin G. Lauri, Esq. ("Mr. Lauri") and I, along with Daniel Fox, Esq., in-house counsel for IBM, attended the Mediation. The Mediator attended the Mediation as well.

12. Plaintiff attended the Mediation for the entire day and was an active participant in the Mediation.

13. At the Mediation, after extensive discussions and proposals, the Mediator assisted the parties in arriving at a settlement figure that was acceptable to both parties.

C. Counsel for the Parties Negotiated and Signed a Memorandum of Understanding at the Mediation

14. After the settlement amount was agreed to by the parties, Defendant's counsel prepared a Memorandum of Understanding which includes all material terms of settlement ("MOU"). Mr. Rozynski reviewed the MOU with Plaintiff. Mr. Rozynski requested that I make changes to the MOU, which I did. Then, Mr. Rozynski and I executed the MOU.

15. A copy of the MOU is attached as Exhibit "B."

16. The MOU states that it is a "binding agreement and contains all material terms."

17. While the MOU contemplated that the parties would enter into a Confidential Negotiated Settlement Agreement and General Release (“Agreement and General Release”), neither party expressly reserved the right not to be bound by the MOU.

18. Consistent with the fee splitting agreement and the fact that a settlement was reached, Defendant paid 100% of the Mediation fees and Plaintiff paid nothing.

D. The Parties Jointly Advised the Court that Settlement Was Reached

19. On April 15, 2014, the parties jointly advised the Court by letter that they reached a binding settlement agreement in connection with this matter and the parties requested a final extension of the deadline to submit the Joint Pretrial Order to May 30, 2014. The parties also requested an adjournment of the pretrial conference.

E. The Parties Prepared a Confidential Negotiated Settlement and General Release Consistent With the Binding Terms of the MOU

20. Thereafter, the parties ceased active litigation of the matter and began preparing an Agreement and General Release in furtherance of the fully-executed MOU.

21. On April 24, 2014, Defendant’s counsel sent Plaintiff’s counsel an e-mail attaching the Agreement and General Release for execution consistent with the fully-executed MOU.

22. On April 28, 2014, Mr. Rozynski sent e-mails to me and my colleague, Jillian L. Hunt, Esq. (“Ms. Hunt”), with minor revisions to the Agreement and General Release.

23. In the e-mails, Mr. Rozynski confirmed that he was in communication with his client regarding the Agreement and General Release. For example, in one of the e-mails, Mr. Rozynski said he would confirm that Plaintiff had not divulged confidential or proprietary information. Then, in a follow-up e-mail, Mr. Rozynski confirmed that Plaintiff confirmed that he has not revealed and will not reveal confidential or proprietary information. Attached as Exhibit “C” are true and correct copies of the April 28, 2014 e-mails.

24. On April 30, 2014, Ms. Hunt sent an e-mail to Mr. Rozynski attaching a redline of the Agreement and General Release consistent with counsel for the parties’ discussions and requested Mr. Rozynski let her know whether the Plaintiff was agreeable to the document.

25. On May 5, 2014, Mr. Rozynski sent an e-mail to Ms. Hunt stating that Plaintiff was “eager to get the settlement agreement signed.” A true and correct copy of this e-mail is attached as Exhibit “D.”

26. On May 6, 2014, Mr. Rozynski sent an e-mail to Ms. Hunt stating “I have confirmed my client is good with the changes with the addition that a scanned signature is as good as an original.” A true and correct copy of this e-mail is attached as Exhibit “E.”

27. On May 8, 2014, Mr. Rozynski sent an e-mail to Ms. Hunt requesting she send him a final draft and he would “get a copy over to our client to sign.” A true and correct copy of this e-mail is attached as Exhibit “F.”

28. On May 8, 2014, Ms. Hunt sent an e-mail to Mr. Rozynski attaching the execution copy of the Agreement and General Release.

29. Mr. Rozynski did not respond.

F. Plaintiff’s Counsel Submitted a Request to File a Motion to Withdraw as Counsel

30. On May 20, 2014, Plaintiff’s counsel submitted a request to file a motion to withdraw as counsel. Plaintiff’s counsel did not indicate the reasons for his request, other than to state that there is an “irreconcilable conflict” between Plaintiff and Mr. Rozynski’s firm.

G. Plaintiff Changes His Position on Settlement Despite Having Entered Into a Memorandum of Understanding and Approved the Terms of the Agreement and General Release

31. Mr. Rozynski has advised the Court that Plaintiff will likely oppose Defendant's motion to enforce the settlement agreement.

32. Defendant has not been advised by Plaintiff's counsel or by Plaintiff as to the reason for his position change.

33. It appears that Plaintiff has simply changed his mind and now seeks to reject the settlement reached on April 9, 2014.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.

Executed on May 22, 2014

We would like to amend #7 of our e-mail. After reviewing my previous e-mail, I want to make a correction. [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] We also agree to the provisions you inputted on paragraph 10. This previous line was sent inadvertently.

Our justification for Mr. Wang's emotional distress damages can be documented by his expert evaluation by Dr. Lubit. As for non-disparagement, we would want all team-leaders, supervisors during his employment and any HR professionals who may verify employment for Mr. Wang.

As for number #9 Mr. Wang has not revealed and will not reveal confidential or proprietary information.

That should address everything. Let us know your thoughts.

Andrew,

We will review and respond to each of your proposed changes. As an initial matter, please provide us a justification for your allocation. Additionally, if your company wants a non-disparagement provision protecting him, it needs to be individual specific. Please identify the individuals you want to be instructed not to disparage him.

Do you have any other comments on the agreement?

On the allocation, we got a lot of pushback from our client but still ended up at an allocation close to 50/50. What do you propose and what is the justification?

Jillian,

The lost wages vs emotional distress seems very high as compared to a lot of our cases. Could you do better on the w-9 wages and allocate more to emotional distress. I was under the understanding if I got you the attorneys fees and costs first we would have a discussion on the allocation. Thank you.

Andrew,

I have redlined the agreement consistent with our discussion about how we can revise the agreement based on your comments in such a way that I think may be agreeable to IBM. I still need to get this approved on my end and I know that you need to do the same. Hopefully we can finalize based on this and then work out the allocation. Please let me know when you get sign-off and I'll do the same.

Thanks,
Jillian
